PREFACE

ग्रन्था ममाग्रतः सन्तु ग्रन्थाः सन्तु मे पृष्ठतः।
ग्रन्था मे सर्वतः सन्तु ग्रन्थमध्ये वसाम्यहम्॥

Manuscripts contain the heritage of the hoary Indian culture. Evidence of writing in the ancient literature is found scattered in the Vedic texts also which date back at least 8000 B.C. The Tiattiriya Samhita speaks very high of the dialect spoken in the Udicya region. Panini (C. 4th Cen. B.C.) speaks of a yavanani lipi (Astadhyayi : Yavanallipyam) and existence of writing in Kautilya's (4th Cen. B.C.) Arthsastra, Kalidasa's (2nd Cen. B.C.), Meghaduta, Mạlavikagnimitra, Abhijnanasakuntalam (I,II,VI) are found. The Tripitaka, the Edicts of Asoka (3rd Cen. B.C.) and other sources of antiquity bear testimony to the existence of the art of writing in India. Prior to that Mohanjodaro seals and Boghaz koi clay tablets speak of the existence of writing besides the Rgveda Samhita. It became prevalant in subsequent times.

The earliest manuscript found is the golden manuscript of the Buddhist text Samyuktagama Sutra found in Mynmar. The Bower manuscript found in the Chinese Turkestan is also one of the oldest manuscripts that have come down to us in the last century.

Explorations and discoveries of manuscripts in various parts of India and other countries were made during 18th to 20th Century. The efforts of Hodgson, Tucci, Rahula Sankrityayana. Sarat Chandra Das, Rajendra Lal Mitra, Hara Prasad Shastri, Dr. Raghuvira and others has yielded good results. With public support lacs of manuscripts have been discovered in India and abroad. These manuscripts have been deposited with the various repositories throughout India and the British Library, British Musem, India Office Library and Reocrds, London, Bibliotheque Nationale, Paris, the Tokyo University Library and the Cambridge University Library. The Buddhist manuscripts discovered from Nepal and Tibet alongwith Northwestern part of India and the Southernmost parts of the country have been deposited with the National Archives of India, the Asiatic Society, Kolkata, the Bangiya Sahitya Parisat, the Sanskrit Sahitya Prisat, the Government Sanskrit College, Kolkata, the Sampurnand Sanskrit Vishwavidyalaya, Varanasi, Ganga Nath Jha Kndriya Sanskrit Vidyapeeth, Allahabad and various repositories in the the different states of the country in the Northern, the Central, the Western and the Southern regions of the country. Noteworthy among these are the L.D. Institute of Indology, Ahmedabad, Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute, Pune, Oriental Institute, Baroda, the Rajasthan Oriental Institute Jaipur, the S.V. Institute, Tirupati, the Mysore University, Mysore and the University of Trivendrum, Thiruanantapuram.

The Library of Tibetan Works and Archives, Dharmashala, the Leh Buddhist Institute and the Central Institute of Higher Tibetan Studies, Sarnath, Varanasi are the repositories of Buddhist and Tibetan manuscripts in India. Side by side we have brought out another companion volume entitled Manuscript and Manuscriptlogy which contains. papers presented at the three national seminars organised in 1985, 1987 and 1988 on preservation and conservation of manuscripts as well as the eleven workshops held by the Foundation during 1983 and 2001.

Now, the Handlist and Catalogue of Manuscripts is in the hands of the learned readers, the researchers and the scholars who, we hope, shall appreciate our efforts in the field of manuscript conservation and preservation and welcome the volume as an humble effort in the field.

It was decided by the Executive Board of the Foundation to bringout A Handlist and Catalogue of Manuscripts in the Possession of Nagarjuna Buddhist Foundation. Though work on this catalogue began much earlier, it could be brought out only now when Government of India provided some funds to publish this work. We propose to bring out the Descriptive Cataloue of 4321 manuscripts in our collection very soon. The major portion of this collection has been included in this catalogue.

We are thankful to the Government of India, Ministry of Culture for their assistance which enabled us bring out this work in print.

If any siggestions for improvement are received, we shall incorporate them in the next edition. We crave the indulgence of the learned readers for the printing errors and other mistakes that have inadvertantly crept in.

Diacritical marks were not available in the press where the book was being printed, hence we apologise for having not used them. We are heartily thankful to the staff of Nagarjuna Buddhist Foundation for the meticulous efforts they have put in preparing the catalogue and seeing it through the press.

We are also thankful to the proprietors and the workers of the Press. M/s Kasturi Offset Systems, Gorakhpur to have completed the timely printing of the book.

WORKING CHAIRMAN'S FOREWORD

Nagarjuna Buddhist Foundation was established in the year 1978 with a view to promote Sanskrit and Indological studies with the thrust area of Buddhist studies.

Subsequently, procurement, preservation, evaluation and conservation of Buddhist and Sanskrit manuscripts were also taken up. The Foundation, with Government and public support, collected around 4381 manuscripts in original and /or their copies in photos, Xeroxes, microfilms as well as enlarged photoprints of microfilms of some Buddhist Sanskrit Manuscripts.

The National Manuscripts Mission, Government of India, Ministry of Tourism and Culture, Department of Culture, New Delhi also nominated the Nagarjuna Buddhist Foundation, Gorakhpur as a Manuscript Conservation Centre (MCC) in2005 A.D. The Foundation has actively engaged itself in Manuscript conservation work for the last three decades.

It has been decided to bring out A Handlist and Catalogue of Manuscripts in the Possession of Nargarjuna Buddhist Foundation edited by Prof. Karunesh Shukla.

Now the catalogue is being presented before the scholarly world. We do hope, scholars and students will benefit from this catalogue.

The manuscripts relate to various disciplines of Sanskrit literature as well as Veda, Vedanga and Hindi literature. These are Upanishads, Itihasapuranas, Puranas, Lyrics, epics and prose-kavyas, prosody, kosa, astrology, astronomy, darsanas–Sankhya, Yoga, Nyaya, Vaisesika, Mimamsa, Vedanta–Advaita, Visistadvaita, Suddhadvaita and other schools of Vedanta, Ayurveda, Vastusastra and other branches of knowledge preserved in Sanskrit and the Hindi Language.

The Buddhist manuscripts are lacking in original. Their Xerox copies, microfilms, photoprints and enlarged photoprints of microfilms have been obtained from various manuscript repositories.

We are thankful to Government of India, Ministry of Tourism and Culture for their financial support to birng out this Volume.

We crave the indulgence of the learned readers for the shortcomings and printing errors that have crept in. Suggestions for the improvement of this volume are invited. We shall incorporate them in the next edition.

Namo Buddhaya.
